Special Transfer Section in the Fall issue

Letter from the Publisher

Dear College Marketer,

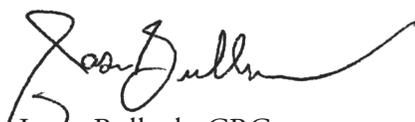

High School and Transfer Counselors are your link to new students. LINK for Counselors magazine can help you reach them more cost effectively than any other medium. In many cases Counselors are the strongest single influence on which college a student attends. Informing them about your programs, campus, and attributes that make your College/University stand out can go a long way towards delivering students to your campus.

The magazine is distributed twice a year to more than 25,000 High Schools in print and an additional 20,000 Counselors digitally. The Fall issue is also distributed to more than 1,500 Transfer Coordinators and includes a special Transfer section with targeted editorial for this hard to reach audience. Most Colleges can't afford to send their representatives out to more than a handful of key schools. We offer a cost effective way to help you get your message out to Counselors all over the country.

Our award winning magazine can help you get your messaging out to the key Counselors that influence student's decisions. Our website (www.linkforcounselors.com) provides targeted opportunities to reach Counselors with job-help information, and our bi-weekly e-newsletter is a cost-effective communications tool that is distributed to more than 20,000 Counselors during the school year (September-May). Feedspot recently recognized LINK for Counselors website and blog as one of the top 25 for Counselors (we were #5). Our website traffic continues to grow as in the past 12 months visitors were up 28% to 32,097 and page views were up 49% to 106,189 (2/17 to 2/18).

Affordable, targeted, and effective! What are you waiting for? Review our media kit and let us know how we can help you increase awareness among Counselors and drive students to you.

Sincerely,

Jason Bullock, CBC
Publisher
